*As the impact of COVID-19 has been significant since February 2020, the change in fluctuation compared with 2019 is also stated.

<Special Items>

With regard to the hotels owned by JHR, RevPAR of the total of the 25 Hotels with Variable Rent, etc. for November 2022 recovered to 86.7% of the RevPAR in the same month of 2019 due to an increase in inbound travelers, in addition to an increase in domestic leisure demand due to national travel support as in the previous month.

RevPAR for December 2022 is expected to recover to almost the same level as the same month of 2019 due to further increase in domestic and international leisure demand. In addition, Holiday Inn Osaka Namba, which has been accepting Covid-19 patients since August 2021, will stop accepting patients at the end of December 2022, and is scheduled to resume operations on February 8, 2023, after a period of operational preparation.

Under such circumstances where the market has begun a full-fledged recovery, each hotel is striving to further stimulate and capture domestic and international leisure demand by implementing strategic measures to capture sales, such as developing attractive products to capture strong domestic leisure demand, creating products targeting inbound demand which expected to increase further and other measures, while continuing to thoroughly implement environmental sanitation and cost management.
